DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1 – 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Application No. 2004/0024846 (Randall et al.).

With respect to claims 1 – 29, Randall et al. teach applicants' limitations at paragraphs 0002 – 0006, 0009, 0015, 0021 – 0023, 0028, 0047 – 0052, 0062 – 0064, 0067 – 0073, 0128 – 0132, 0146, 0169, 0175, 0178, 0190 – 0194, 0233 – 0246, 0367, 0379 – 0380, 0488 – 0497, Table 3 on page 23. In addition, note Table 4 also on page 23 – page 24 (call privacy, e-mail management, chat profiling, people tracking, medical data, e-mail attachments, Bluetooth, call screening, fitness tracking. Additionally, note Appendix 1 (I've changed my details, home divert, I just don't want the call now, Friends Only, Add One, Conference Chat, Text me and see, Text mates, Route finder and beacon Button. With respect to paging and faxing, Randall et al. does not explicitly refer to either, but a fair reading of Randall et al. shows that both are inherent.
